SENATE.

Washington, Jan. III.—In the senate to-day the McGarrahan bill was under consideration for half an hour. After a speech against it by Mr. Mitchell it went over till next Monday.

The anti-option bill was then taken up, and Mr. White's pending amendment to the second section was defeated. The amendment offered by Mr. Vilas, which would have the effect of restricting the operations of the bill to gambling transactions, was debated for the rest of the day, but went over without action.

HOUSE

SUNDAY AND THE FAIR. Washington, Jan. 13,-The world's fair Sunday opening hearing went on again this morning.

Dr. Doney, who said that he represented the critics of Scranton and Wilkes Barre, & a., presented petitions sixty-fire feet in weight against Sunday opening. He also read a letter from Governor Pattison expressing bearty approval of Sunday closing. Thomas Morgan, chairman of the special committee of the Chicago Trade and Labor assembly, said that he had received responses from 355 labor organizations, representing almost every city in the United States, all favorable to Sunday opening. In addition, he represented the great American Turnerbund and also the German Salbon Keepers' association of German Saloon Keepers' association of Chicago. Mr. Morgan denied emphatically that the clergy and any authoracy for the statement that working men were against Sanday opening.

Rev. Dr. Thomas of Chicago argued that the matter of going to the world's fair on Sauday should be left to each person's conscience. Sunday opening was not a descration of the Sabbath, as assumed by the other side. The fair was both a school suit a church, for the exhibition of nature and man's progress, and appealed to the intellectual and moral life of the nation. The hearing then closed,
